

David Eggins

12 Lanhenvor Avenue, Newquay, Cornwall, TR7 2HF

01637 859180

07740049324

dave@polymathservices.com

www.polymathservices.com

Summary

I am an active, resourceful and very versatile all rounder with a professional and friendly approach. I am self motivated and leadership oriented but with a strong team ethos. I have successfully run my own business for 20 years with the complete attendant skill set and therefore I have a great many transferable organizational, administrative and communication skills which have benefited the variety of small and large companies with which I have been associated.

Skills

- Professional IT Standard - Business Design & Support
VB6/Crystal Reports/SQL
- Stock Control – Design/Practical
- Website setup and organization
- Sales/Marketing - Direct Sales to e-marketing
- Excellent Analytical Skills using IT
- SME focused with vast business experience
- Outstanding communication ability
- Exemplary people management skills
- Highly literate
- Highly numerate
- Fluent in several European languages
- High grade customer support and service skills
- Highly motivated and deadline oriented
- Leadership and project management
- Huge ability to retain and interpret properly large amounts of information
- Extremely accurate administration and organizational ability

Employment History

Polymath Services, Newquay, Cornwall 1990 -2011. Freelance IT professional, working in a wide forum of business sectors. The work area is mainly involved selling the concept of and the design and implementation of business databases for potential customers with invoice control, stock management and data management being the main areas. I set up and organize websites. I am also able to offer extensive support for PC based systems and multi-user networks to ensure the smooth running of my system as part of the service.

Aztec Office Equipment, Truro Cornwall, 1989-1990. IT Sales Coordinator/Support Manager ensuring as trouble free as possible sale to ownership transition of computers as well as managing the team of support engineers.

CountHouse Computers, Camborne, Cornwall, 1988-1989. Project Manager – heading a team of 5 programmers working on the design and implementation of computer systems for a for Local Government Organizations, mainly Health and VAT and Order and Stock Processing for a variety of small to medium businesses in the North of England , working in Camborne for a satellite company of a Sheffield based concern.

Coren Associates, Sutton, Surrey, 1986-1988. Senior Analyst/Programmer producing administrative systems with invoicing and order building for nationally known customers such as Securicor.

Emptech Ltd, Plymouth, Devon 1985-1986, Trainee Analyst/Programmer successfully completing an intensive training course in Systems Analysis – Problem Finding and Solving and converting fact finding to achievable and useable computer Programs

Treseders Florists, Truro, Cornwall, 1983-85. Transport Manager – dealing Europe wide with Interflora.

Newquay Cricket Club, Newquay, Cornwall, 2009-2011. Chairman

Newquay Sports Centre, Newquay, Cornwall, 2000 – 2009. Chairman and Director of the Executive Board and joint project manager in securing a £4M site renovation with lottery/Sport England funding.

Newquay Squash Club, Newquay, Cornwall, 1998-2003. Chairman

Cornwall County Squash League, 1992 -1998. Secretary

Additional Information

Languages – degree level German and French – University College London

Sport - Active squash and sailing, administration and as spectator

Full driving licence

Good sense of humour

Interests – Music, quizzes, sport, travel, languages, TV, driving.

References

First class references are available on request from clients, former employers and social contacts

Availability

With immediate effect

D Eggins/Nov 2011